Tommy Smith

Member, Insurance Diversity Task Force

Tommy Smith is Manager, Economic Impact, Impact Spending at Kaiser Permanente (KP), where he leads the engagement strategy for measuring the economic and community impact of KP's supplier diversity spend. He is the custodian of the Kaiser Permanente's National Supplier Diversity policy and manages KP's prime supplier program for identifying contract and development opportunities for diverse suppliers throughout its value chain. Prior to his current role, Smith conducted policy analysis and program evaluation in civic engagement, economic development, education, supplier diversity, and workforce training.
