Life – Limited to the Payment of Funeral and Burial Expense (Previously known as Life-Limited to PreNeed) California Examination Objectives

Overview

Effective January 1, 2007, the California Insurance Code (CIC) was amended by adding Section 1676(c). CIC Section 1676(c) states that an applicant for a life agent license who is limited by the terms of a written agreement with an insurer to transact only specific life insurance policies or annuities having an initial face amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or less that are designated for the payment of funeral and burial expenses, shall not be required to take the full life agent examination to obtain a license. Those applicants shall be required to take an examination developed to test their knowledge of topics relevant to the type of policies that they are restricted to sell. CIC Section 1677 requires that the Life – Limited to the Payment of Funeral and Burial Expenses examination be of sufficient scope to satisfy the Insurance Commissioner that an applicant has sufficient knowledge of insurance and insurance laws to transact the type of policies that they are restricted to sell.

For purposes of the examination, the applicant must pass a Life - Limited to the Payment of Funeral and Burial Expenses examination that shows that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and comprehends the following items:

(1) With the most specific knowledge required in:
   * funeral insurance contracts
   * mandatory policy provisions of a funeral insurance contract
   * benefits of a funeral insurance contract
   * annuity policies

(2) With specific knowledge required in:
   * basic life insurance concepts and principles * responsibilities and authority of a Life – Limited to the Payment of Funeral and Burial Expenses license
   * senior insurance products

(3) With a general understanding of:
   * life insurance programs
   * what is happening in today's insurance marketplace
   * common requirements and provisions of a life insurance contract

(4) With a general understanding and familiarity with:
   * the California Insurance Code
   * the ethics standards expected of all licensees
