Re: Requirement That Controlled Escrow Company Follow Escrow Instructions

Dear Mr. Rosenfield:

The following legal opinion letter is written pursuant to Insurance Code 12921.9.<sup>1</sup> It is in response to your request of March 12, 2013 (attached).

You ask:

Assuming that the parties to [a California Association of Realtors' Residential Purchase Agreement and Joint Escrow Instructions ("RPA")<sup>[2]</sup>] identify a specific [Natural Hazard Disclosure ("NHD")] report provider in section 4 of the RPA, or in a separate instruction to escrow, may a "controlled escrow company," as defined by Insurance Code section

(a) A letter or legal opinion signed by the Commissioner or the Chief Counsel of the Department of Insurance that was prepared in response to an inquiry from an insured or other person or entity and that discusses either generally or in connection with a specific fact situation the application of the Insurance Code or regulations promulgated by the commissioner shall be made public. The department may redact the name, address, policy number, and other identifying information regarding a particular insured or other person or entity from the letter or legal opinion when it is made public.

(b) A letter or legal opinion made public pursuant to this section shall not be construed as establishing an agency guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, rule, or regulation, as those terms are described in Sections 11340.5 and 11342.600 of the Government Code.

12340.6(a), subject to the jurisdiction of the California Department of Insurance, properly close escrow using the NHD report of a provider other than the provider specified by the parties, where there is no writing that is "signed," as that term is defined in section 22.L of the RPA, by the Buyer and Seller amending the escrow instructions to authorize such a change in the NHD provider? [Emphasis in original]

The answer is no, a controlled escrow company would not legally be permitted to do what you describe.

I. Definitions and Background Legal Principles

A. Types of Escrow Entities in California

There are two types of escrow entities in California:

- "Licensed" escrow companies, also known as "independent" escrow companies. The Department of Corporations licenses these companies. Fin. Code § 17200.
- "Controlled" escrows, also known as "non-independent" escrows. A controlled escrow may be owned and operated by a lawyer, a real estate broker, or a title insurance company, among others. Controlled escrows are regulated by a number of agencies.

B. Definition of "Controlled Escrow Company" Subject to Insurance Commissioner Regulation

Escrow companies controlled or commonly owned by a title insurer are subject to regulation by the Insurance Commissioner. The Insurance Code defines the type of controlled escrow company subject to Insurance Commissioner regulation:

(a) "Controlled escrow company" means any person, other than a title insurer or underwritten title company, whose principal business is the handling of escrows of real property transactions in connection with which title policies are issued, which person, if an artificial person, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or controls or is under common control with a title insurer, or controls or is controlled by or is under common control with an underwritten title company, or if a natural person, is employed by or controlled by a title insurer or by an underwritten title company. As used in this section, the term "control" shall have the meaning set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 1215.

(b) Except for Article 6 (commencing with Section 12404) this section does not apply to any person or entity doing business under any law of this state or the United States relating to banks or savings and loan associations.

Ins. Code § 12340.6.

C. Commissioner's Regulatory Authority Over Controlled Escrow Companies

The Commissioner "shall . . . enforce the execution" of all the laws "regulating the business of insurance" in California. Ins. Code § 12921(a). Controlled escrow companies engage in the "business of insurance" in California. Id. § 12340.3 ("'[b]usiness of title insurance' includes: . . . [t]he performance by a . . . controlled escrow company of any service in conjunction with the issuance or contemplated issuance of a title policy including but not limited to the handling of any escrow, settlement or closing in connection therewith; or the doing of or proposing to do any business, which is in substance the equivalent of any of the above").

The Commissioner has authority to regulate a broad range of activities by controlled escrow companies. See, e.g., Ins. Code § 12404 (prohibiting controlled escrow companies from offering inducements for referrals); id. § 12404.1 (prohibiting controlled escrow companies from furnishing preliminary reports without a charge); id. § 12405 (prohibiting controlled escrow companies from making rebates); id. § 12405.7 (prohibiting controlled escrow companies from paying for advertising or promotional materials of a customer); id. § 12407 (authorizing the Commissioner to examine the books of any controlled escrow company believed to be violating laws involving rebates, inducements and commissions); id. § 12408.5 (giving the Commissioner authority to seek penalties from controlled escrow companies that make unlawful rebates); see also id. §§ 12409, 12413.1, 12413.2, 12413.5, 12414.13-12414.19, 12414.21-12414.31, 12418. Neither the Commissioner nor any other governmental entity licenses controlled escrow companies.

"[The Insurance Commissioner's] powers are not limited to those expressly conferred by statute; rather, "[i]t is well settled in this state that [administrative] officials may exercise such additional powers as are necessary for the due and efficient administration of powers expressly granted by statute, or as may fairly be implied from the statute granting the powers.'" Calfarm Ins. Co. v. Deukmejian, 48 Cal. 3d 805, 824 (1989) (citations omitted)).

D. NHD Reports

An NHD report or statement is a document a seller of real property must provide to a buyer if the property is within a state-mapped hazard area, including seismic, flood, and fire hazard zones. Civ. Code §§ 1102-1102.17 (California Natural Hazards Disclosure Act). In essence, the statement discloses to the buyer that because property is within such a zone it is subject to risk in the event of an earthquake, flood, or fire. A number of companies prepare and sell NHD reports.

II. Analysis

You describe a situation in which a controlled escrow company does not follow the NHD report provider specified in written escrow instructions and closes escrow using a different NHD report provider without receiving a written amendment to the escrow instructions signed by buyer and seller.

In Section 4.A.4 of the RPA, buyer and seller designate the NHD report provider and which party (buyer or seller) will pay for the NHD report. Section 28 of the RPA provides in bold print: "Neither this Agreement nor any provision in it may be extended, amended, modified, altered or changed, except in writing Signed by Buyer and Seller." Section 24 of the RPA identifies which sections of the RPA constitute the "joint escrow instructions of buyer and seller." Among the sections that are part of the joint escrow instructions of buyer and seller are Sections 4 and 28.

Based on the specific terms of the RPA, it would be legally impermissible for a controlled escrow company to act as you describe.

An escrow company, also called an escrow holder or escrow agent, has a fiduciary duty to buyer and seller to carry out the terms of the escrow. See, e.g., Summit Financial Holdings, Ltd. v. Continental Lawyers Title Co. 27 Cal. 4th 705, 711 (2002) ("[a]n escrow holder is an agent and fiduciary to parties to the escrow"); Vournas v. Fidelity Nat'l Title Ins. Co. 73 Cal. App. 4th 668, 674 (1999) ("[t]he primary duty owed by an escrow holder is to strictly and faithfully perform the instructions given to it by the parties to the escrow") (emphasis added).

The terms of a written escrow instruction may be changed. But they may only be changed by joint agreement of buyer and seller. Diaz v. United California Bank, 71 Cal. App. 3d 161, 166 (1977) ("[i]t is also elemental that, where the written escrow instructions amount to an agreement made by two principals with their joint agent and signed by both, neither can unilaterally change the instructions"); Westamerica Bank v. City of Berkeley, 201 Cal. App. 4th 598, 610 (2011) ("a unilateral change in the terms of the escrow agreement . . . is not permitted under common law").

Further, under the scenarios you describe, buyer and seller may amend the escrow instructions only by a written amendment. RPA § 28. Absent such a written amendment, a controlled escrow company would violate its fiduciary duty by closing escrow using an NHD report provider other than the provider specified in the RPA. Such action by a controlled escrow company would be an abrogation of buyer and seller's agreement and a breach of fiduciary duty.

Inherent in the Commissioner's authority to regulate controlled escrow companies is his authority to regulate the core legal obligation of escrow companies to satisfy their fiduciary obligation to buyer and seller. See CalFarm, 48 Cal. 3d at 824.

Very truly yours,

Adam M. Cole

Re: Request for Opinion re Modification of Escrow Instructions

Dear Mr. Cole:

Consumer Watchdog is investigating certain practices involving escrow services in the purchase and sale of homes, and requests a legal opinion, pursuant to Insurance Code section 12921.9(a), with respect to the following issue.

The California Association of Realtors' Residential Purchase Agreement and Joint Escrow Instructions ("RPA") form, an exemplar of which is submitted with this letter, contains a provision for the parties to a real estate transaction (i.e. the buyer and the seller) to (a) identify the provider of the Natural Hazard Disclosure ("NHD") report, and (b) allocate the cost of the NHD report to either the buyer or the seller. (See section 4.A.(3).)

Section 24.A of the RPA makes clear that the provisions of section 4 of the RPA constitute instructions to escrow to be followed for purposes of closing escrow.

Section 28 of the RPA provides that “[n]either this Agreement nor any provision in it may be extended, amended, modified, altered or changed, except in writing Signed by Buyer and Seller.”

Assuming that the parties to the RPA identify a specific NHD report provider in section 4 of the RPA, or in a separate instruction to escrow, may a “controlled escrow company,” as defined by Insurance Code section 12340.6(a), subject to the jurisdiction of the California Department of Insurance, properly close escrow using the NHD report of a provider other than the provider specified by the parties, where there is no writing that is “signed,” as that term is defined in section 22.L of the RPA, by the Buyer and Seller amending the escrow instructions to authorize such a change in the NHD provider?

We appreciate your assistance with this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Any removal of contingencies or cancellation under this paragraph by either Buyer or Seller must be exercised in good faith and in writing (C.A.R. Form CR or CC).

A. SELLER HAS: 7 (or  _____ ) Days After Acceptance to Deliver to Buyer all Reports, disclosures and information for which Seller is responsible under paragraphs 4, 6A, B and C, 7A, 9A, 11A and B, and 12. Once Buyer's written removal of all contingencies is Delivered to Seller, Seller may not cancel this Agreement pursuant to 14C(1).

C. SELLER RIGHT TO CANCEL:

(1) Seller right to Cancel; Buyer Contingencies: If, within time specified in this Agreement, Buyer does not, in writing, Deliver to Seller a removal of the applicable contingency or cancellation of this Agreement then Seller, after first Delivering to Buyer a Notice to Buyer to Perform (C.A.R. ## BUYER'S INSPECTION ADVISORY

(C.A.R. Form BIA-A, Revised 10/02)

Property Address: Test Form Only, _____ ("Property").

A. IMPORTANCE OF PROPERTY INVESTIGATION: The physical condition of the land and improvements being purchased is not guaranteed by either Seller or Brokers. For this reason, you should conduct thorough investigations of the Property personally and with professionals who should provide written reports of their investigations. A general physical inspection typically does not cover all aspects of the Property nor items affecting the Property that are not physically located on the Property. If the professionals recommend further investigations, including a recommendation by a pest control operator to inspect inaccessible areas of the Property, you should contact qualified experts to conduct such additional investigations.

B. BUYER RIGHTS AND DUTIES: You have an affirmative duty to exercise reasonable care to protect yourself, including discovery of the legal, practical and technical implications of disclosed facts, and the investigation and verification of information and facts that you know or that are within your diligent attention and observation. The purchase agreement gives you the right to investigate the Property. If you exercise this right, and you should, you must do so in accordance with the terms of that agreement. This is the best way for you to protect yourself. It is extremely important for you to read all written reports provided by professionals and to discuss the results of inspections with the professional who conducted the inspection. You have the right to request that Seller make repairs, corrections or take other action based upon items discovered in your investigations or disclosed by Seller. If Seller is unwilling or unable to satisfy your requests, or you do not want to purchase the Property in its disclosed and discovered condition, you have the right to cancel the agreement if you act within specific time periods. If you do not cancel the agreement in a timely and proper manner, you may be in breach of contract.

C. SELLER RIGHTS AND DUTIES: Seller is required to disclose to you material facts known to him/her that affect the value or desirability of the Property. However, Seller may not be aware of some Property defects or conditions. Seller does not have an obligation to inspect the Property for your benefit nor is Seller obligated to repair, correct or otherwise cure known defects that are disclosed to you or previously unknown defects that are discovered by you or your inspectors during escrow. The purchase agreement obligates Seller to make the Property available to you for investigations.

D. BROKER OBLIGATIONS: Brokers do not have expertise in all areas and therefore cannot advise you on many items, such as soil stability, geologic or environmental conditions, hazardous or illegal controlled substances, structural conditions of the foundation or other improvements, or the condition of the roof, plumbing, heating, air conditioning, electrical, sewer, septic, waste disposal, or other system. The only way to accurately determine the condition of the Property is through an inspection by an appropriate professional selected by you. If Broker gives you referrals to such professionals, Broker does not guarantee their performance. You may select any professional of your choosing. In sales involving residential dwellings with no more than four units, Brokers have a duty to make a diligent visual inspection of the accessible areas of the Property and to disclose the results of that inspection. However, as some Property defects or conditions may not be discoverable from a visual inspection, it is possible Brokers are not aware of them. If you have entered into a written agreement with a Broker, the specific terms of that agreement will determine the nature and extent of that Broker's duty to you. YOU ARE STRONGLY ADVISED TO INVESTIGATE THE CONDITION AND SUITABILITY OF ALL ASPECTS OF THE PROPERTY. IF YOU DO NOT DO SO, YOU ARE ACTING AGAINST THE ADVICE OF BROKERS.

E. YOU ARE ADVISED TO CONDUCT INVESTIGATIONS OF THE ENTIRE PROPERTY, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING:

- 1. GENERAL CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY, ITS SYSTEMS AND COMPONENTS: Foundation, roof, plumbing, heating, air conditioning, electrical, mechanical, security, pool/spa, other structural and non-structural systems and components, fixtures, built-in appliances, any personal property included in the sale, and energy efficiency of the Property. (Structural engineers are best suited to determine possible design or construction defects, and whether improvements are structurally sound.)
- 2. SQUARE FOOTAGE, AGE, BOUNDARIES: Square footage, room dimensions, lot size, age of improvements and boundaries. Any numerical statements regarding these items are APPROXIMATIONS ONLY and have not been verified by Seller and cannot be verified by Brokers. Fences, hedges, walls, retaining walls and other natural or constructed barriers or markers do not necessarily identify true Property boundaries. (Professionals such as appraisers, architects, surveyors and civil engineers are best suited to determine square footage, dimensions and boundaries of the Property.)
- 3. WOOD DESTROYING PESTS: Presence of, or conditions likely to lead to the presence of wood destroying pests and organisms and other infestation or infection. Inspection reports covering these items can be separated into two sections: Section 1 identifies areas where infestation or infection is evident. Section 2 identifies areas where there are conditions likely to lead to infestation or infection. A registered structural pest control company is best suited to perform these inspections.
- 4. SOIL STABILITY: Existence of fill or compacted soil, expansive or contracting soil, susceptibility to slippage, settling or movement, and the adequacy of drainage. (Geotechnical engineers are best suited to determine such conditions, causes and remedies.)
