

John Casas
Chairman of the Board,
JT² Integrated Resources

Mr. Casas is the majority owner of JT² Integrated Resources (JT²), the nation's largest Hispanic-owned third party administrator (TPA) handling workers' compensation and liability claims for self-insured public and private entities. California clients include schools, cities, counties, fire districts, water districts, joint powers authorities and privately-owned operations. JT² California service locations include headquarters in Oakland, client service centers in both Oakland and Manteca, and administrative services in California.

JT² sits on the Hispanic Business Magazine's Top 500 Latino Owned Firms, has been recognized as Inc. Magazine's 'Inner City 100' nationwide, and has been Telemundo Media Group's six most exemplary companies in their Bay Area Hispanic Business Salute. In recognition of the success of JT², Mr. Casas has been honored with personal resolutions of commendation from the California State Senate, California State Assembly (twice), Los Angeles' City Council and the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors; has served on Task Forces implemented by California Insurance Commissioners Dave Jones and John Garamendi; is a Mayoral appointee to the Oakland Work Investment Board; sat more than a decade on the Boards of Directors for the California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce and the Oakland Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce; and has earned recognition from the California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce, with JT² cited 'Exemplary Hispanic Business' and Mr. Casas 'Hispanic Businessman of the Year'.

Prior to starting JT² in June, 1993, Mr. Casas was Vice President of a medical management firm, with responsibility for business plan development, workers' compensation industry assessment, and public agency policy formulation. He is an AT&T retiree, completing a twenty-five year career with extensive marketing planning, project management, customer service and sales support experience, and unique experience implementing joint ventures.

Mr. Casas is a graduate of Loyola University of Los Angeles, with a BA in English/Economics.
