

BRENT STEWART

Manager, Supplier Diversity Initiative
National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce

As the Supplier Diversity Manager, Brent Stewart supports the National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce (NGLCC) Supplier Diversity Initiative Department.

He assists LGBT-owned businesses to become certified and provides ongoing support and programming for businesses to make valuable connections within the community and leverage their certification to achieve their business goals. Additionally, Brent oversees the National Certification Committee and overall departmental processes. He manages document workflow and the applicant database. He also provides training and business development services.

Prior to joining the NGLCC, Brent facilitated and managed the AVID enrichment program at various schools across Northern Virginia. A history aficionado, Brent has a B.A. in History from St. Bonaventure University and his M.A. in American History from George Mason University. On the side, he actively engages in historical research and discovery.
