Doug Bystry, President & CEO
Clearinghouse CDFI

Mr. Bystry has provided financial services to low-income communities for over 25 years. Mr. Bystry, in his professional career, has successfully raised and deployed over $1 billion for low-income communities. Much of this capital was raised by Clearinghouse CDFI, which he founded in 1996, and is now one of the largest CDFI's in the nation. Clearinghouse CDFI was the first CDFI in the nation to be rated by Standard & Poor's and received an "AA STABLE" rating.

Clearinghouse CDFI embraces the concept that "community lending can and should be profitable." This philosophy has helped attract over 50 bank and corporate investors providing debt and equity. Clearinghouse CDFI was the first non-depository CDFI in the nation to borrow from any Federal Home Loan Bank. They currently have over $310 million in total assets. They were the first CDFI selected for the inaugural round of the CDFI Fund Bond Guaranty Program and the first to deploy $100 million.

Mr. Bystry previously was a Housing Commissioner for the County of Orange and a City Council member for the City of La Habra, California. He serves on the COIN (California Organized Investment Network) Advisory Board, whose goal is to increase insurance industry community investments throughout California. Mr. Bystry serves on several other non-profit boards primarily benefitting affordable housing and the disadvantaged populations. He is a UCLA graduate.
