California Department of Insurance

Los Angeles • Oakland • Sacramento

Who We Are:

The California Department of Insurance is the consumer protection agency for the nation's largest insurance marketplace. With annual direct premiums of $340 billion, California is the largest insurance market in the United States and the fourth largest insurance market in the world.

Nearly 1,400 dedicated employees work at CDI to oversee more than 1,400 insurance companies and license more than 425,000 agents, brokers, adjusters, and business entities.

In the normal course of business, CDI annually:

- Processes more than 6,200 rate applications
- Issues approximately 200,000 licenses (new and renewals)
- Performs hundreds of financial reviews and examinations of insurers doing business in California
- Receives more than 160,000 consumer assistance calls
- Investigates more than 45,000 consumer complaints, and, as a result, recovers more than $100 million a year for consumers
- Receives and processes tens of thousands of referrals regarding suspected fraud against insurers and others; conducts criminal investigations resulting in thousands of arrests every year

Employment Process

Obtaining employment with CDI involves a competitive testing and employment application process.

STEP I: Search

Visit the CalCareers website at www.calcareers.ca.gov and click the “Get a State Job” icon, where you can browse available vacancies.

You can also browse current CDI job vacancies by conducting an advanced search by department.

STEP II: Assessment

If you are new to employment with the State of California, you must pass an open exam before applying for job vacancies. Follow the steps below to complete the exam process:

- Search and apply for an Open Exam.
- Review the exam bulletin on CalCareer website at www.calcareers.ca.gov to determine if you meet the minimum qualifications.
- Refer to the exam bulletin to determine the appropriate method of applying for the exam.

STEP III: Apply

Create a user account at www.calcareers.ca.gov.

You are able to complete up to three application templates that you may tailor and use to apply to multiple positions.

After you apply for a job, you may be offered an interview. Once hired, you will be on probation for six months to one year, depending on the classification.

Please contact careeroutreach@insurance.ca.gov with any questions or concerns.
