MORNING PLENARY – PANEL: THE ROAD MAP TO DIVERSITY, PANELIST

Amanda Poe
State Compensation Insurance Fund

Amanda Poe continues to provide strategic and forward thinking leadership to State Fund's Enterprise Procurement program. With her leadership, Enterprise Procurement strives to deliver excellent contracting and sourcing results by leveraging State Fund's buying power, establishing strategic supplier relationships, and reducing overall procurement costs through aggressive negotiations. These results positively influence bottom line results and have a direct impact on creating a competitive advantage for State Fund.

Prior to beginning her career with Enterprise Procurement, Amanda started as a claims adjuster in 2005 until she found an opportunity within Enterprise Procurement to become a Purchasing Agent in 2007 supporting Real Estate Management and other departments. In 2012, her talents were recognized and she was promoted to Category Manager. Finally, in 2014 she was promoted to her current role as VP of Enterprise Procurement. In 2013, she started the foundation for State Fund's first Supplier Diversity Initiative; reporting on the supplier diversity spend. Since then she has been responsible for the evolution of the Supplier Diversity program and is actively involved in the continued growth and maturity of State Fund's Supplier Diversity Initiative.
